Dear Bill:

STAT Thank you for your letter forwarding [redacted] biographic sketch and photograph. It was good to hear from you.

STAT After reviewing [redacted] fine background and qualifications, I referred his biographic sketch to LTG Graham, our Deputy to the Director of Central Intelligence for the Intelligence

STAT Community, who I understand has been in contact with [redacted]

STAT While we have no position available for [redacted] on the Intelligence Community Staff at the present time, there is a possibility that we might be able to offer him a contract position on the Staff at some future date. If this opportunity arises, General Graham will, of course, get in touch with him.

STAT I appreciate your writing to me on behalf of [redacted]

Sincerely,

1st Vernon A. Walters

Dear General Walters,

STAT

During your last visit to my office you mentioned the possibility that your Agency might be interested in after his retirement this summer. My records indicate that he is scheduled for retirement on 31 July 1974.

Enclosed for your information if desired is a current detailed biographic sketch and the official U.S. Army photograph.

If I can be of any further assistance please let me know.

With utmost respect, I am

Sincerely,

WILLIAM E. POTTS
Lieutenant General, USA
